Crowded House Greeted Band Concert

The people of Gettysburg on last Wednesday evening stamped with their unalloyed approval and appreciation the excellent band concert given by the Citizens Band. They crowded the Court House on Wednesday evening until every seat was taken. The ladies were filled with chairs and every chair occupied. Space inside the building was filled with available chairs and all taken. Many stood to hear the concert. Quite a number when they found they would have to stand left saying they would come to the next concert. The audience numbered more than 500 persons.

The concert was one that well merited a crowded house. It was concert band music of the very best type and was well played throughout. All the selections were new and were roundly applauded calling forth several encores. The selections were "Walden," "The Violets," "A Night in Berlin," "Ida Ho," "Golden Rod" and "Dixieland." Miss Elaine Ingersoll sang a solo "Twins the Rose" from Happyland. She has a voice of much sweetness, musical richness and expression. Her singing was a treat to hear and the audience showed its delight in a most enthusiastic demonstration, winning an encore a catchy song.

The College Mandolin Club met with a cordial reception after playing "The Giggler" and gave an encore "Dash and Crash."

Victor Hausknecht of College is an artist with the violin and gave a solo "Romance" and house called forth an encore.

Miss Carrie Tawner and Mark K. Eckert played a piano duet "In a Cozy Corner" which was well received and called out an encore.

After the performance Photographer Wm. H. Tipton took a picture of the band by flash light.

The Woman's Civic Club, appreciating the civic value of delightful band concerts, at a recent meeting voted their encouragement to the band in the shape of a donation of $10 for the purchase of music.

It is entirely in place for the citizens to realize and appreciate the exact position of the band. Many of the members are men engaged in business who are giving of their time without any remuneration whatever or thought of same for the sake of the good to the town in a good band. To pay salary of leader, buy new music, pay for band instruments has taken the funds as fast as they came in. The band is only about even now with nothing in sight for uniforms and a neat uniform would certainly add to the appearance of the band. The concerts will be continued twice a month, small admission fee being charged solely for purpose of meeting expenses. The concerts in February will be announced later and will be late in month owing to absence of Leader Harmon on College Musical Club tour.

Eagles Institute an Aerie.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles instituted an Aerie in Gettysburg on Tuesday evening of last week with 78 members. The order started under most auspicious circumstances. Fully 200 members of the order from Hanover, York, Carlisle and Harrisburg, accompanied by the Hanover Citizens' Band took part in the opening exercises. They marched from depot to Xavier Hall where the ceremonies took place under the auspices of Dep. State Grand President Jesse Hedrick, of Harrisburg and Paul D. Heuck of Shenandoah. The institution of the aerie was a very enthusiastic meeting and gave promise of a large membership beside the long list to start. The beneficial and social features are said to be very attractive propositions. The following are the members taken in on last Tuesday:

Geo. W. Bowser, Ben. W. Kindig, Jr., Geo. F. Young, M. F. Williams, M. E. Hartman, M. E. Long, Geo. R. Lee, Luther M. Slentz, John H. Schriver, John A. Hall, W. Henry Kahlfleisch, Michael B. ### PRIMARY NOMINATIONS.

Districts Whose Papers Were the Last to be Returned.

All nomination papers have been filed with the County Commissioners. The Republicans of Conowago township filed no papers and it is now too late to file any. Feb. 1st, being the last day. Below will be found nominations in the districts that were not reported last week.

When we went to press two weeks ago the name of the Democratic nominee for Town Council in the Third Ward had not been reported to us, and last week through an oversight it was not stated that Joseph Redding was the Democratic Nominee for Town Council in the Third Ward. He has not retired but is in the light to the end. Uncle Joe is popular and will undoubtedly make a good run in the Third Ward.

Chronic Constipation Cured

One who suffers from chronic constipation is in danger of many serious ailments. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation as it aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels, restoring the natural action of these organs. Commence taking it today and you will feel better at once. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. People's Drug Store.

The property of Alex. Harman, deceased, of Berwick township, was bought by Birt Ruth for $710.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant. KODOL digests what you eat and allows the stomach to rest—recuperate—grow strong again. KODOL is a solution of digestive acids and as nearly as possible approximates the digestive juices that are found in the stomach. KODOL takes the work of digestion off the digestive organs, and while performing this work itself does greatly assist the stomach to a thorough rest. In addition the ingredients of KODOL are such as to make it a corrective of the highest efficiency and by its action the stomach is restored to its normal activity and power. KODOL is manufactured in strict conformity with the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by People's Drug Store.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contains have had a warning printed on them against Opium and other narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by People's Drug Store.

GENTLEMEN OF THE ROAD.

The Famous "Sixteen Strings Jack" and Dick Turpin.

At the Rose tavern, a noted gaming house standing in Marylebone gardens early in the eighteenth century, Sheffield, duke of Buckingham, used to toast his companions at their farewell dinner when the season ended in the ominous words, "May as many of us as remain unhanged next spring meet here again!" John Rann, the highwayman, otherwise "Sixteen Strings Jack," of evil fame, liked to swagger about at Ragnigge Wells in the intervals of carrying out his nefarious deeds or undergoing punishment for the same. He is described as appearing there in July, 1774, "attired in a scarlet coat, tamboir waistcoat, white silk stockings and a laced hat. On each knee he wore the bunch of eight ribbons which had gained him his sobriquet of 'Sixteen Strings Jack.'" There were lively doings, under the influence of this sprightly gentleman, and on the occasion referred to he was pitched out of a window for offending honest company. Only a few months later he met the reward for his misdeeds on the gallows at Tyburn for conspiring to rob the Princess Amelia's chaplain.

Dick Turpin was another "gentleman of the road" who amused himself in the intervals of "business" by frequenting pleasure gardens. He was once moved to kiss a fair lady in public at Marylebone, as-suring her, when she protested, that she might ever after boast of the favor she had received. Whether Turpin and gentlemen of similar occupation came to pleasure gardens solely for their diversion may reasonably be doubted when we remember how frequent robberies were in the paths and field ways leading to these sylvan retreats. Watchmen were set to guard those who go over the fields late at night, yet even so visitors were often attacked and robbed, sometimes in the gardens themselves and sometimes on the road to or from them.

In early days at Marylebone it was deemed necessary to provide the company with a guard of soldiers to conduct them home at night, a curious winding up to a jovial evening. Pickpockets were of course plentiful at all the gardens despite every precaution, and one night at Cuper's in 1743 a thief caught in the act of taking a lady's purse was rescued from the hands of the police by a band of his comrades on his way through St. George's fields and enabled to escape justice for that time.—Temple Bar.

He Never Hove "Gampy."

Meath Jarrett was a shrewd horse trader to the day of his death. He was slightly deaf and used his deafness in his business to no small degree.

One day he sold an old horse to a neighboring farmer, who thought he had found a great bargain. He changed his mind, however, when, after driving his new purchase a few miles, the beast emitted a series of explosions strongly resembling the exhaust of a locomotive.

Straightway he drove to "Gampy," who was sharpening a knife in his dooryard, his son Abner turning the grindstone. The disgruntled purchaser began a long tirade, which was perfectly audible to the old man, who, however, simulated great deafness and finally remarked, "Hey?"

"You're a skin!" howled his neighbor.

"Hey?"

"I say you're a skin. This boss 'as got the heaves."

"Hey?"

"It's got the heaves. Heaves—heaves—heaves!"

The old man looked at him calmly. Then, indicating his son, he said gently: "Never hove me. Hove Abner once!"—Boston Herald.

An Elaborately Prepared Crime.

This story of an elaborately prepared crime was told by Sir Robert Anderson of Scotland Yard, London. A criminal marked a millionaire as his quarry and rented a bedroom near the railway station from which the rich man took the train for town. Well dressed and well groomed, he took his seat in the same compartment, attracting notice only by his apparent desire to remain unnoticed while he dealt with the papers he carried in a stylish handbag. One morning after a few such journeys he gave vent to his annoyance at having forgotten his keys. A stranger sitting in the opposite corner politely offered him his bunch in the hope that he would find on it a key to open the bag. But none of them would fit the lock. At the suggestion of the stranger, who, of course, was an accomplice, the millionaire then produced his bunch of keys, and a few seconds sufficed to enable the thief to take a wax impression of the key of the rich man's safe. A few days later the safe was rifled, and before the crime was discovered the thief was across the channel with his booty.

Couldn't Fool Him Twice.

The heavy clouds were massing in the west, the lightning was flashing, and the thunder was rumbling ominously. The fond mother gathered her young hopeful to her and tried logically to calm his fears.

"There's no danger, dear. God sends the thunderstorm to clear the air, water the flowers and make things cool. You mustn't be frightened. It won't harm you, and everything will be better when it's over."

The little chap listened intently, and when his mother finished he looked at her quizzically.

"No, no, mamma," he murmured, "you talk exactly the way you did last week when you took me to the dentist to have that tooth pulled."—Harper's Weekly

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The Night Cure, as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, cases nervous excitement, drives removed vigor and animation, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well the system.

Precedence in New York Society.

A philanthropic society of New York recently arranged a benefit performance in one of the theaters. A large number of prominent women were to act as patronesses. When the time came to have the announcement cards engraved the president of the society was in a quandary. In what order should he arrange the names? He had never given the matter of social precedence a thought. He referred his troubles to one of the women, and she said decisively:

"They must be arranged alphabetically or you will be in hot water at once."

"But some of these ladies are wives of scientific men who are world renowned and some are simply rich. Some are wives of army and navy officers."

"It makes no difference. In New York society the order of precedence is alphabetical, and there is no other rule."—New York Sun.

Generous to the Church.

Lady Dorothy Nevill in her reminiscences tells this story of George Payne, who dropped his worldly means in the quicksands of the turf, but was always unflinching and pleasant in conversation: "Are you not coming to church, Mr. Payne? was on one occasion the stern interrogation of his hostess, a very great lady, who descended upon him in all the severity of her Sabbath panoply. 'No, madam, I am not,' he replied, making swiftly for the door; but, pausing as by a polite afterthought previous to his exit, he exclaimed, with magnificent emphasis, 'not that I see any harm in it.'"

GUARANTEED REMEDY FOR INDIGESTION.

Interesting Statement by The People's Drug Store.

When a man comes into this store and calls for any particular indigestion remedy, we always give him what he asks for, but in case he leaves it to us we usually recommend Pepsikola tablets.

Here is a preparation we have been selling right over the counter for years, and from actual observation we know it must do good, and really does cure indigestion and dyspepsia or there would be a steady stream of people coming back for their money, as every 25 cent box is sold with the understanding that you must be decidedly benefited or there is nothing to pay.

You simply try Pepsikola tablets with the understanding that they will steady your nerves, improve your appetite, relieve wind belching, coated tongue, sour stomach, fullness after eating, weakened energy, and other symptoms of indigestion or The People's Drug Store are ready at any time to pay back your money without the least argument.

Did You Ever Realize that hundreds of thousands of house wives endorse the electric irons as being far superior to the out of date old fashioned flat irons, no fuss, fumes, or promoting across the kitchen, you turn the bottom we do the rest.

Your Wife Works Very Hard to keep the home pleasant, clean and comfortable, you don't do any of it, she deserves some of the good things in life to lessen her labors. Open your heart. Electric light is the light of health and good cheer, it does not smoke up the lace curtains, blacken the walls, smell bad, or vitiate the air, can not be blown out, explode or asphyxiate one, consequently of less trouble and worry to her.

Maximum Comfort and Convenience.

The domestic electric motor, babies food warmers, heating pads for the sick room, coffee urns, broilers, bakers, chaffing dishes always do the work for less than the hired girl, don't go out evenings, nor require a day off, never complain, never sick, needs no calling down or watching, does everything the ordinary stove does, and more, without the dirt, soot, smoke, etc.

THE DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

Iron Springs, Feb. 4. A terrible accident occurred a hundred or more yards from the Iron Springs School House on the hill above John Staley's buildings on the Pure Oil Pipe Line Company on last Tuesday Jan. 29, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning, being the dynamite explosion briefly referred to in last issue of Compiler.

Irvin Eyer and John Shulley from near Fairfield and Harry Calmer of Franklin County were members of what is known as right-of-way gang, men who go ahead of the ditch diggers and mark off the lines for the trench, blasting away rock, etc.

The three men were thawing dynamite at a fire which they had built and one of the caps accidentally dropped into the fire. Instead of running away the men endeavored to recover it and prevent an explosion which would cause damage. They were eagerly reaching for the cap when it exploded causing thirteen sticks of dynamite to explode, throwing the men back into the bushes. Eyer and Calmer were unconscious when found and their faces were covered with blood. They were taken at once to the homes of Harry and Ambrose Sanders. Drs. Glenn and Trout were at once sent for and responded quickly. They found the men severely injured about their breasts, necks and faces. The flesh seemed torn from their bodies as if a dull knife had been used to cut away the outer skin. It was raw and from it poured drops of blood and water. The men suffered great pain. John Shulley was taken to his home several hours afterward but was not seriously injured. The same evening Messrs. Eyer and Calmer were carried to Iron Springs Station on cots and placed on the train and sent to the Chambersburg Hospital. Mrs. Calmer, mother of Harry Calmer, and his brother accompanied the two injured men to the hospital. Mr. Eyer has a wife and several children. Harry Calmer is unmarried and not 21 years old. Only a short distance from the spot was a box of dynamite and it is fortunate it did not explode as it would have blown the men to pieces.

The latest news from the Chambersburg hospital is that Harry Calmer is slowly recovering and it is now possible for him to open his eyes slightly
